

Since assuming the position of Executive Director and CEO of the Ypsilanti Housing Commission (YHC) in 2013, Zac Fosler has led the formerly troubled agency on a journey of growth and revitalization, successfully rebuilding or fully renovating every unit of public housing in the City of Ypsilanti, and strengthening a partnership with EMU's Family Empowerment Program to expand their nationally-recognized, high quality resident service coordination services to every YHC household. In addition to serving on the Board of the Ann Arbor YMCA, Zac serves on a number of other boards at the local, state, and national level, where he works to increase the availability of affordable housing, enhance the services and opportunities that improve the quality of life of affordable housing residents, and bring an end to homelessness.
