

Each camper experiences an individual journey while at Al-Gon-Quian; choosing their own activities, developing independence and exploring the world. On the first full day of camp, campers have the opportunity to set their own schedule for the week, by selecting two morning and two afternoon activities.

Activities Include

- Swimming
- Canoeing
- Sailing
- Drama
- Sports (Basketball, Soccer, Frisbee, Gaga and more)
- Arts & Crafts
- Wood Shop
- Riflery
- Archery
- Nature
- Horseback Riding/ Trail Rides
- Climbing Wall
- Waterskiing

AGQ campers sleep in rustic cabins. Typically each cabin houses 7-9 campers and 2-3 counselors. Each camper is provided with a wooden bunk and shelving or under-the-bed storage space to keep personal items. Living together in a simple setting, campers share adventures and have many opportunities to grow. Campers have access to modern bathroom facilities, complete with hot water and showers with private changing stalls.
